

I object to Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This not fair and represents corporate greed forcing opinion on the American public.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get biased information that's aimed more at enhancing the company's financial interests, than balanced information that viewers in this free country deserve.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. It is the responsibility of the FCC to enforce the rules so that there will be equal opportunity to present both sides of every issue. Thank you.
